Dear Gene:

Thank you very much for your recent correspondence regarding the Chattanooga Communities Neighborhood Housing Services' pending grant application with the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

As a matter of sound policy, White House officials do not intervene in pending decisions by departments or agencies regarding grants, contracts and similar matters. I am, therefore, forwarding your letter to the Office of Intergovernmental Affairs at HUD for a direct reply.

Thank you for sharing with me your interest in the St. Elmo's project. I am sure that your application will receive full consideration.

Dear Strom:

I had heard some weeks ago that you were moving your family back to South Carolina. Although I will miss seeing Nancy and the children, I compliment you on your decision. Joy and I wish all the best for you and Nancy.

Hope you enjoyed the August recess and got some rest. We'll all be working your hours these next several months.

Warm regards.

Dear Mr. Patestides:

Thank you for your letter of August 24 on behalf of the Reverend Constantine N. Dombalis. You are absolutely right -- he has impressive credentials. I'm delighted to learn of his interest in public service.

A new Director for the White House Office of Public Liaison, Rebecca Range, has been appointed by the President. I am certain Rebecca will be assessing her staffing needs over the next several weeks, and I will ask her to review Father Dombalis' resume. I'm also forwarding a copy of his resume to the Office of Presidential Personnel for further review, should a vacancy occur in the future.

Again, thank you for taking the time to write. You have my warm best wishes.

Dear Mr. Horner:

Thank you for your letter requesting help in replacing the 30-year-old C-130A aircraft now assigned to the 164th Tactical Airlift Group in Memphis. The Administration remains committed to modernizing all of the Air National Guard (ANG) tactical airlift units.

Our top priority for the Tennessee ANG is to replace all C-130As as soon as newer aircraft become available. President Reagan's defense budget submissions to Congress will accomplish this task as quickly and as responsibly as possible. With continued congressional support, more modern aircraft should become available to upgrade the Tennessee ANG in the early 1990s.

The most critical element in the President's plan for Total Force airlift modernization is production of the C-17 aircraft. Keeping the C-17 funded and its production on track will insure assets are made available to replace the C-130A. President Reagan's plan is the best fiscally responsible approach to maintaining a strong national defense; we will continue to work with Congress to modernize Memphis and Nashville ANG units in accordance with this plan.

I appreciate having your informed views on this important matter, and I send my best wishes.

Dear Ms. Chapman:

Thank you for your message expressing support for the President's nomination of Judge Robert H. Bork to the position of Associate Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court.

President Reagan believes Judge Bork to be a man of the highest integrity and qualification as well as an eloquent and powerful advocate of judicial restraint, a philosophy whose guiding principle is that it is the legislature's role to enact laws and the court's role to interpret them.

In making the nomination, the President stated:

Judge Bork is recognized as a premier Constitutional authority. His outstanding intellect and unrivaled scholarly credentials are reflected in his thoughtful examination of the broad, fundamental, legal issues of our times. . . . We're fortunate to be able to draw upon such an impressive legal mind; an experienced judge and a man who already has devoted so much of his life to public service. He'll bring credit to the Court and his colleagues, as well as to his country and the Constitution.

The American Bar Association gave Judge Bork its highest rating -- "exceptionally well qualified" -- when he was confirmed by the Senate as an Appellate Judge in 1982. President Reagan is confident that the current Senate confirmation process will be equally successful and he looks forward to Judge Bork beginning a long and distinguished career as a Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States.

Again, thank you for writing. Please accept my best wishes.

September 14, 1987

Dear Gil:

Thank you for your letter concerning the report of the President's Commission on Americans Outdoors. You are correct -- these issues are important to me and to the Administration.

I am sorry to hear your view that there is a strong perception in the country that this Administration has not aggressively pursued "quality of life" issues. I strongly believe the Administration's record is excellent in this regard, particularly when viewed in the context of the vast array of other responsibilities of the Federal Government such as national security, agriculture, space exploration, energy, welfare, health, and education.

The President has had a strong and comprehensive set of initiatives relating to outdoor activities since the first day of his Administration. For example, one of his first policy objectives was to restore and improve national park facilities. Over $1 billion was spent for this purpose in 4 years, and funding levels have remained relatively high since that time. The Administration argues that we must take good care of what we have before we add other areas which cannot be properly managed. Moreover, the Administration believes that it is appropriate that State and local governments address recreation requirements at those levels and that Federal actions be targeted to areas of national importance.

With respect to the Commission's recommendations, the Administration has an active review process underway which I expect to be completed in the relatively near future, or by the end of this year. Unquestionably, much of the Report is consistent with the goals of this Administration and can be strongly supported. Other recommendations will require careful study and must be balanced against competing needs, including ongoing activities to protect the outdoors and to control spending.

The President and I realize that you and the other Commission members worked very hard on the Report. Your efforts have formed an excellent frame of reference from which the Administration can assess its programs to protect the American outdoors. These efforts are greatly appreciated.

Again, thanks for setting aside time to send me your thoughts.

With my appreciation and best wishes,

Sincerely,

Howard H. Baker, Jr.

CLEARED WITH OPD

September 14, 1987

Dear Dan:

Thanks for your note about the big problem we have with the new office building project in Moscow. Jim Schlesinger, Anne Armstrong and Mel Laird have headed up reviews of the program to find ways of cleaning up the situation. The President has reviewed the findings and it appears that dismantling of a substantial part of the building is required.

Ben Rich's people have been in town to provide briefings to key people at State and other agencies. The idea of coating the walls is compelling, but the intelligence folks have achieved a coup of sorts and want to exploit the sophisticated Soviet engineering that has been uncovered. That, of course, does not mean that we couldn't use some of the more creative products of the "skunk works."

For the next two years or so, we have a lot of work to do in Moscow to get a suitable and secure facility. Technological solutions are required for building shielding and other counter-measures to protect our activities from KGB penetration. I'm sure Ben Rich and other resourceful people will be of enormous help to us.

It was good to hear from you. I appreciate your thoughtful note and the very useful referral on Ben.

We're fortunate to be able to draw upon such an impressive legal mind; an experienced judge and a man who already has devoted so much of his life to public service. He'll bring credit to the Court and his colleagues, as well as to his country and the Constitution.

The American Bar Association gave Judge Bork its highest rating -- "exceptionally well qualified" -- when he was confirmed by the Senate as an Appellate Judge in 1982. President Reagan is confident that the current Senate confirmation process will be equally successful and he looks forward to Judge Bork beginning a long and distinguished career as a Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States.

Again, thank you for writing. Please accept my best wishes.

Sincerely,

Howard H. Baker, Jr.

Dear Mr. Parran:

Thank you for your recent letter expressing your opposition to the provision in the Senate-passed trade bill requiring advance notice to employees of plant closings and layoffs of 50 or more employees during any 90-day period.

The Administration will insist on removal of the Senate provision during the House-Senate conference on the trade bill. Contrary to the reported objectives of trade legislation, mandatory advance notice would make American industry less competitive, not more.

In his most recent letter to the Senate on this legislation, the Secretary of Labor stated that inclusion of any mandatory plant closing provisions would make it impossible for the President's senior advisors to recommend approval of a trade bill.

Thank you for sharing your views.

Sincerely,

Howard H. Baker, Jr.
Chief of Staff to the President

Dear Postmaster Tisch:

Thank you for sending me the two stamp albums commemorating the drafting of the United States Constitution and the bicentennial of Pennsylvania statehood, respectively.

These stamps pay richly deserved tribute to the legacies of our Founding Fathers and the early colonizers of "Penn's Woodland." During this historic month, it is appropriate to recognize Pennsylvania as the second state to ratify the United States Constitution.

I am sure to enjoy these albums.

Sincerely,

Howard H. Baker, Jr.

Dear Mr. Scott:

Thank you for your thoughtful message. I appreciate your friendship, but I do not plan to run for office in 1988. It is my intention to serve President Reagan until the end of his term.

Your words of encouragement mean a great deal to me. Please accept my warm best wishes.

Sincerely,

Howard H. Baker, Jr.

Dear Mrs. Brown:

Thank you for your message expressing support for the President's nomination of Judge Robert H. Bork to the position of Associate Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court.

President Reagan believes Judge Bork to be a man of the highest integrity and qualification as well as an eloquent and powerful advocate of judicial restraint, a philosophy whose guiding principle is that it is the legislature's role to enact laws and the court's role to interpret them.

In making the nomination, the President stated:

Judge Bork is recognized as a premier Constitutional authority. His outstanding intellect and unrivaled scholarly credentials are reflected in his thoughtful examination of the broad, fundamental, legal issues of our times. . . . We're fortunate to be able to draw upon such an impressive legal mind; an experienced judge and a man who already has devoted so much of his life to public service. He'll bring credit to the Court and his colleagues, as well as to his country and the Constitution.

Dear Miss Norris:

Thank you for your kind invitation to visit the Pinecrest Rest Home. I especially appreciate your thoughtfulness, but the heavy demands of my schedule will not allow me the pleasure of meeting with the residents of your home.

I am enclosing a photograph which I hope you will enjoy having. It comes with my warm best wishes.

Sincerely,
